

State space decomposition and classification of term structure shapes in the two-factor Vasicek model

Felix Sachse

TU Dresden
Institut für Mathematische Stochastik, 01062 Dresden
Germany

Joint work with: Martin Keller-Ressel

Using the concept of envelopes we show how to divide the state space \mathbb{R}^2 of the two-factor Vasicek model into regions of identical term-structure shape. We develop a formula for determining the shapes utilizing winding numbers and give a nearly complete classification of the parameter space regarding the occurring shapes.